

Court Interpreter Workshop

Presented by:

Metro/Davidson County

State Trial Courts

- The interpreter workshop is the first step towards certification.
- Court interpreters are primarily freelance contractors (be your own boss), but can work as full time employees when positions are available in many states.
- In Tennessee Courts, the Administrative Office of the Courts pays Spanish Court Interpreters anywhere from $25 to $50 per hour, and Languages Other than Spanish up to $75 per hour, based on their level of accreditation.

In an effort to grow the number of much needed qualified court interpreters for all languages, the State Trial Courts will be offering this workshop at a cost of $100 per person for a limited time.
